

PURPOSE

The Greater St. Louis Knitters' Guild was organized in October 1985 to promote interest and skill in knitting, to encourage high standards of workmanship and to encourage the use of those skills for the benefit of others.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to knitters of all levels of ability, from novice to professional.

SERVICES

- Monthly meetings – there is a speaker or hands-on demonstration, Show and Share and a chance to receive help with knitting problems.
 - The Knitters' News – a monthly newsletter for members containing articles, patterns, hints, book reviews and other knitting information.
 - Neighborhood Knit-Ins – informal monthly get-togethers for members to exchange patterns and ideas.
- Knit-Ins held in public places, such as bookstores, knit shops or restaurants, are open to non-members.
- Community Service programs for preemies, babies, children, nursing home residents, chemotherapy patients, humane society and others.
 - Special activities include workshops, exhibits, luncheons, knitters' retreats, etc.
 - News of other guilds throughout the country and a chance to attend national conventions.
 - Website with Guild information and links to other interesting knitting sites: Check us out at <http://www.stlouisknittersguild.com>.
